Import of soyabean oil

292. SHRI SURESH PACHOURI: Will the Minister of AGRICULTURE be pleased to state:

(a) whether the import of Soyabean oil has affected the farmers who are also the Soyabean oil processors;

(b) whether it was necessary to import the Soyabean oil when there was a favourable crop in Madhya Pradesh; and

(c) if so, to what extent there had been favourable crop of Soyabean oil seeds and to what extent the import of Soyabean oil had affected the producers and what were the steps taken to see that the import of Soyabean oil had no effect on farmers in Madhya Pradesh and other States also?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE AND COOPERATION IN THE MINISTRY OF AGRICULTURE (SHRI SHYAM LAL YADAV): (a) No, Sir.

(b) and (c) Soyabean oil being cheaper in the International market, is imported in crude form. It is then refined and supplied for distribution under Public Distribution System (PDS) to States|Union Territories and the Vanaspati Industry. In view of the demand of soyabean oil from the State of Madhya Pradesh for distribution under PDS, it is being supplied in refined form to that State. Edible oils including soyabean oil, are being imported to bridge the gap between demand and supply in the country and is kept to the minimum possible. It does not affect the farmers and their production of oilseeds including soyabean in any way.
